INTRODUCTION

HENRY VIII, after the suppression of the Monasteries, granted on 31st July 1541 to John Alen, Chancellor, and some 'professors of the Laws'<sup>(1)</sup> the site of the dissolved monastery or house of the Friars Preachers (Dominican Order) near Dublin for a term of 21 years.<sup>(2)</sup> A clause was added by which it was enacted that such persons as desired to practise the Law in Ireland should have previously been resident in an English Inn of Court. Upon the expiration of this lease it was renewed by Queen Elizabeth and the statute enforcing the education of Irish students at an English Inn was made perpetual. The building gradually fell into utter ruin, and the King's Inns Society in Ireland all but perished.

In 1607 efforts were made to restore the prestige of the Society. The Lord Deputy, Sir Arthur Chichester, enrolled himself a Member of the Society at the request of the Judges and Members of the Bar, thus giving it Vice Regal patronage. The King's Inns Society ordered on 25 June that year 'that the admittances shall be received and entered in the book of admittances as they shall appear and desire the same;' this was because the Society 'doth require an admission of the practisers, Officers, attorneys and others of the several Courts, whose auctientye is not yet sufficiently known.'

In 1784 the Benchers, a group of up to forty-five senior Barristers, published a pamphlet entitled 'General Rules'; 'Having full power to make and ordain Rules and Orders concerning the Business and Practise of Attornies, and for their admission into the said Society, and for and concerning the Admission of Students into the said Society ... for the advancement of Knowledge in the Science and Practise of the Law.' Strict rules were laid down governing the admissions of the apprentices and law students to the King's Inns Society. The two groups, the apprentices who became attorneys, and the law students who became barristers, continued until 1866 when the attorneys withdrew and formed their own Society, the Incorporated Law Society of Ireland, which received its charter in 1877. In recent years the Society moved to new headquarters in Blackhall Place, Dublin.

(1) As 'farmers' they are all named in Newport B. White Extents of Irish Monastic Possessions, p. 54, in an Extent of the House of Friars Preachers made later that year.

(2) See Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Records, 7 Appendix Calendar of Fiants of Henry VIII, No. 238 (513) for a brief précis. A copy of Fiant 238 had been made by the Record Office prior to the destruction of the Fiants in 1922, and was found in King's Inns Library. A copy of this is now 999/205 at P.R.O.I.

The present King's Inns in Henrietta Street, Dublin, was built in 1802, and King's Inns Library, on the opposite side of the street, was completed in 1827. The Library, which is not open to the public, contains some 110,000 volumes, about one half concerning legal matters. Permission to inspect any document must be obtained in writing from the Benchers.

THE ADMISSION PAPERS

The Admission Papers were kept in the Tholsel. About 1804 they were removed to King's Inns on open carts with the result that many were lost in transit. They remained in the custody of the Under Treasurer of King's Inns, their existence largely unknown, until recent years when they were deposited in the Record Room in King's Inns Library.

Admission Papers are only concerned with the start of a career in law. They are memorials addressed formally to the Right Honourable Benchers of the Honourable Society of King's Inns, written by hand during the early years and later on printed forms. There are some 40,800 original documents in all held in the Library, now arranged in order of surnames. The great value of the Papers lies in their genealogical content.

King's Inns Admission Papers 1607-1867

This volume is based on the work, unfinished at his death in 1957, of the late Thomas Ulick Sadleir, B.L., who spent many years making abstracts from the Admission Papers, then in King's Inns, and adding particulars from the records of Gray's Inn, Lincoln's Inn, the Middle Temple, and the Inner Temple. In the early years Irish Law Students had to complete their education in an English Inn. They could keep terms at King's Inns and then be recommended to an English Inn, or could start their legal career at an English Inn and then proceed to King's Inns. By a Statute of 32 George III 1783 admission to an English Inn carried with it formal admission to King's Inns at the same date.

Students and Barristers

A law student seeking admission had to set out in his memorial the name, occupation and place of abode of his father, and, usually, his mother's maiden name, and whether he had been in any trade, profession or business. He had to give up such employment and would not be accepted if he was acting as an attorney or clerk to an attorney. He had also to give security by a bond of two persons severally bound in the sum of £100, for his obeying and keeping the laws and rules of the Society. These bonds are of special interest because of the signatures attached. With a second memorial the student had to lodge a certificate of his having kept eight terms in an English Inn. He also had to have kept nine whole terms at King's Inns, and had to state his age and the date on which he had attained that age. His two memorials had to be signed by a barrister of at least forty terms standing.

A barrister's Admission Papers should number five documents. Of those now extant about one third are complete, and for the others there may be from one to four Papers now available. The following are examples of the five documents. Three of them concern two celebrated Irish Patriots — Robert Emmet and Theobald Wolfe Tone.

1. Memorial to be admitted a student:

"The Memorial of Robert Emmet Junr. Sheweth That he is the second son of Robert Emmet of Stephen's Green in the city of Dublin, Esq., Doctor of Physick, and Elizabeth Emmet otherwise Mason his wife. That he is at present a Student in the University of Dublin and of the rank of Junior Sophister therein. That he never followed any Profession or Business. And he now humbly requests Admission specially into this Honble. Society as a Student of Law therein. [signed] Robt. Emmet

I certify that I know the above named Robert Emmet Junr. and the contents of the above Memorial to be true and think him a fit and proper person to be admitted a Student in this Honble Society. [signed] Richard Frankland"

This memorial is annotated "The Memorial of Robert Emmet Junr. to be admitted a Student Recd. 2 Nov. 1795."

2. Bond on admission as Student:

"Robert Emmet second son of Robert Emmet of Stephen's Green in the city of Dublin, Esq., Doctor of Physick, the said Robert Emmet and Thomas Addis Emmet of said place, Esq., are holden and firmly bound unto the Honourable Society of the King's Inns, Dublin, in the just and full sum of One Hundred Pounds Sterling . . . . The condition of the above obligation is such That if the above bounden Robert Emmet Junr. . . . shall conform himself to the Rules, Orders and Regulations of the said Society . . . . and shall well and truly pay all such Pensions, Commons and Duties . . . . payable by him as a Member of said Society . . . . then the above Obligation to be void and of no effect."

This bond dated 2 November 1795 is signed by all three parties. Only two of Robert Emmet's admission Papers are extant.

3. Certificate from an English Inn:

"These are to certify That Mr Theobald Wolfe Tone the eldest son of Peter Tone of Blackhall in the County of Kildare in the Kingdom of Ireland, Gentleman, was specially admitted of the Honourable Society of the Middle Temple on the third day of February One Thousand seven hundred and eighty seven Hath kept eight terms Commons in the Dining Hall of this Society and paid for one Term not kept Hath paid for one Candlelight and six Vacation exercises not performed and hath paid all Duties due to the Society and the Officers thereunto belonging In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and the Seal of the said Society this Sixteenth Day of April in the twenty ninth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third by the Grace of God of Great Britain France and Ireland King Defender of the Faith and so forth and in the year of Our Lord One Thousand seven hundred and eighty nine. Jerome Knapp. Treasurer. Witness Wm. Eldred Sub. Treas[urer]."

Theobald Wolfe Tone's Memorial for the degree of Barrister, Trinity Term 1789, and the printed Certificate of his having taken the Oath of Allegiance and Oath of Abjuration on 4th May 1789 with the above certificate from the Middle Temple are the only three of his Papers now extant. His signature does not appear on any of them.

4. Memorial for admission generally to Membership of the Society of King's Inns and to the Degree of Barrister:

Memorial of Thomas Thornton Macklin, 2nd son of James Macklin, Londonderry, schoolmaster, and Elizabeth Rodgers. Admitted Student E[aster] 1801 [1802] and to Gray's Inn T[inity] 1803. That he attained the age of 24 years on the 30th October 1804. Hath kept nine terms in this Honble. Society and eight terms in said Society in Great Britain . . . now requests admission generally into the Honble. Society, and to the Degree of Barrister therein.

I certify that I know the above named Thomas Thornton Macklin and think him a fit and proper person to be admitted to the degree of Barrister. W. C. Plunket 5 June 1805.

5. "Barrister's Certificate", "Oath of Allegiance", "Abjuration" or "Qualification":

Certificate. Search being made in the Prothonotary's Office of the King's Bench in Ireland, I find that Thomas Thornton Macklin did on 16 June 1805 take and subscribe the Oath of Allegiance . . . and Oath of Abjuration. Robert Hamilton D[eputy] Pro[thonotary].

A Barrister's Certificate, Oath of Allegiance or "Qualification" was a document that had to be signed before a Barrister was admitted to his degree. In 1704 it was decreed that no person was to be admitted to the Bar until he had produced an authentic certificate of his receiving the Sacrament according to the usage of the Church of Ireland. As time went on this Act was relaxed. These certificates contain no genealogical information but can supply the date when a Student became a Barrister in cases where the Barrister's Memorial (No. 4 above) is missing.

Apprentices and Attorneys

An attorney who wished to take an apprentice had to state in his memorial the apprentice's name, the number of apprentices he already had, his own place of abode and whether he attended the Courts in Dublin or not.

The apprentice in his petition to be taken as an apprentice had to state the name, occupation and place of abode of his father, and his mother's maiden name, and submit two affidavits, one as to his age (he had to be sixteen years or over) and the other as to his education. He had to serve twenty whole terms as an apprentice to an attorney before he was admitted into the Society of King's Inns as an attorney. His actual training was largely a matter of what he could learn from the attorney who took him as apprentice.

An attorney's Admission Papers consisted of five parts. Four were concerned with his admission as an apprentice, the fifth being his bond and admission to the Society on becoming an attorney. Few bonds have survived except some for the period 1785-1804.

1. An attorney presented a Memorial to take the apprentice:

Memorial of Hezekiah Holland O'Callaghan, Attorney of Court of Exchequer, Common Pleas and King's Bench, of Nassau Street, Dublin, to take Standish Deane O'Grady to be his Apprentice.

2. The apprentice submitted a Petition:

Petition of Standish Deane O'Grady, first son of John, Castlefarm, Co. Limerick, and Lucinda O'Grady otherwise O'Driscoll his wife; of full age of 16; educated at Schools of Rev. John Higgins and Rev. Michael Fitzgerald . . . . to be taken as Apprentice.

3. Affidavit as to Apprentice's age:

Affidavit of said Hezekiah Holland O'Callaghan as to said Standish Deane O'Grady's age because the residence of the said John O'Grady is upwards of 100 miles from Dublin.

Affidavit of John O'Grady of Castlefarm, Co. Limerick, aged upwards of 35 years, maketh oath that Standish Deane O'Grady in the annexed Petition named is of the full age of sixteen years. Sworn 2 November 1805.

4. Affidavit as to Apprentice's education:

Affidavit by Standish Deane O'Grady "he hath been educated by Private Tuition in his father's house, and at the Schools of Rev. John Higgins and Rev. Michael Fitzgerald; saith he had read Lattin Gramar, Corderius, Ovid and Virgell when he left the same." 12 November 1805.

5. Bond on admission as Attorney to the Society of King's Inns:

Standish O'Grady eldest son of John O'Grady, of Castlefarm, Co. Limerick, John Ryall, Dublin city, attorney, and Peter Smithwick of said city, gent. Bond 5 Dec. 1810 on admission of said Standish O'Grady as Member of Honble. Society of King's Inns as an Attorney.

In addition to these five documents there were often assignments. The apprentice's master may have died, or had ceased to attend the Courts, or, as one apprentice described the situation, "had become deranged in his affairs." The new master had to file a Memorial and the apprentice a Petition stating the facts. Assignments give no genealogical information but can supply some estimate of the apprentice's age (assuming he was over 16 when he commenced his apprenticeship) if all other documents are missing.

A few indentures of apprenticeship made between an attorney and his apprentice have been found. Two of those are of James Dwyer 1799 and James Nagle 1816. The very high standards of integrity expected of the apprentice in dealing with his master's affairs are recited 'hurt to him he shall not do.' He was not to play at cards, dice or any other unlawful games, frequent Taverns or Ale Houses, or contract matrimony without his master's consent during his apprenticeship.

RECORDS OF ADMISSIONS 1607-1867

Admission Papers:

Students and Barristers. The Admission Papers date from 1723. Abstracts from them have been made to the year 1867, civil registration of births, deaths and marriages having come into force. The Admission Papers for Law Students and Barristers from 1868 are in the Record Room at King's Inns Library but are tedious to consult being tied in bundles in chronological order of Terms and unindexed.

Apprentices to Attorneys. These Papers date from 1793 to 1866, comprising over six thousand applications.

In both these series many Papers, especially for the period 1804-1820 are now missing.

Lists of Names from 1607:

1. Public Record Office, Four Courts, Dublin. Lodge Manuscript (IA 53 72)
"Alphabetical list of the Society of King's Inns, Dublin, from the Restoration of the said Society in 1607, Sir Arthur Chichester, Lord Deputy of Ireland, being the first Member, transcribed from the Society's Books . . . being five in number." This list 1607-1771 was compiled by John Lodge, Deputy Keeper of the Records in Bermingham Tower, and Deputy Keeper of the Rolls. There is a copy made by Sir William Betham at the College of Arms, London, and a similar list in the Fisher Manuscripts at the Genealogical Office, Dublin (G.O. 288).
There are two lists of Members, the first being mainly of Barristers whose numbers were augmented by the admittance of persons such as the Lords Lieutenant and their Secretaries and the Archbishops of Dublin. Lodge notes that the second list, the 'Attornies' is incomplete as admissions were not entered in the books of the Society 1679 to 1752. He does, however, include many entries from 1732 onwards and sometimes omits dates.
2. Public Record Office, Dublin: Exchequer Petitions. "Petitions of persons (clerks) to be admitted Attorneys of the Court of Exchequer" 1711-1726. There are 222 Petitions. Names of Masters under whom the Petitioners served are recited. Names are noted as 'master' and 'clerk' respectively in King's Inns Admission Papers 1607-1867.

3. Public Record Office, Dublin: Attorney Roll. "Attorneys Alphabetical roll of 1765-1834 and some earlier undated entries." The earlier undated entries and those for the period 1785-1818 have been checked. Those names not found elsewhere are indicated by the letter 'r' (Roll) in King's Inns Admission Papers 1607-1867.
4. In Reading Room, King's Inns Library: Two Manuscript volumes, admissions of Barristers Michaelmas Term 1732 to 1791, and of Attorneys Michaelmas Term 1752 to 1792, names only. In the early years Barristers are shown as paying a fine of £2. 13. 4d on admission and Attorneys 13/4d.
5. Royal Irish Academy, Dawson Street, Dublin: Haliday Pamphlets, Vol. 121. This is a list, alphabetical, not indexed, of Barristers and Attorneys 1734/5, extracted from the Rolls of the several Courts of Law and Equity (printed by George Grierson, Dublin, 1735). This shows to which Court, of Chancery, King's Bench, Common Pleas or Exchequer, they were appointed. The list is useful because approximate times of admissions of Attorneys, listed in some cases by name only in the Lodge Manuscript, can be inferred from the fact that they were practising in the year 1734/5.

MANUSCRIPT VOLUMES

In addition to the Papers at King's Inns Library there are Manuscript Volumes and a manuscript list in the Record Room of the Library. Entries from these not found elsewhere are indicated by "ms" in King's Inns Admission Papers 1607-1867.

1. Barristers, Admissions to Degree 1782-1792. Father's name and address 1782-90. Particulars of terms kept at an English Inn 1782-1789. Names only 1790-92.
2. Barristers, Admissions 1792-1819, and 1835. Father's name and address to Trinity 1816, then names only to 1819. Year 1835 reciting father's name and address.
3. Student Admissions 1782-1785 and
4. Student Admissions 1786-1792. Both these supply father's name and address, e.g. Vol. 4, 11 Jan. 1786: "Mr Thomas Grady, son of William, Rahon, Co. Limerick, is admitted as a Student in the Honble. Society of King's Inns, Dublin, and hath paid his admission fee." (£5).
5. Student Admissions 1792-1818, and 1835. Father's name and address to April 1819. April 1819 to December 1819 names only. Hilary Term to Michaelmas Term 1835 with father's name and address. This admission list is incomplete. Names for 14 terms are missing, e.g. Admissions are not entered after Trinity Term 1811 until Michaelmas 1812.
7. Apprentices 1804-1843 names and names of masters. There are over three thousand names in the list.

12. A manuscript of 23 pages "A list of the Attorneys admitted and sworn in the Court of Exchequer since Hilary Term 1767" to July 1789. This list of over a thousand names shows that some of the Attorneys admitted to Exchequer had previously been admitted to the Court of King's Bench or Common Pleas.

Entries in the following manuscript volumes supply names only, sometimes fees paid. They have not been checked for King's Inns Admissions 1607-1867. Entries are in chronological order.

6. Students 1804-1843.
8. Students admitted Michaelmas 1819-1852.
9. Barristers and Students 1850-1883.
10. Barristers, Students, Attorneys taking Apprentices, Assignments. "Journal Hilary 1847" — names and fees paid 1847-1864.
11. Barristers, Admissions 1819-1852, "Barristers Stamped Book" — names, dates, fees paid.

In spite of the official nature of the documents the Admission Papers can also include correspondence. There are many excuses advanced by those who had allowed the 'essoin' day of term to pass without lodging some certificate or paying some fee. Amongst references to current or personal affairs is a Memorial to Benchers of the Honourable Society of King's Inns 7 November 1799 from Richard Trench relating that during part of Easter and the whole of Trinity Term he had served as a yeoman in the Lawyers Cavalry, his military duties preventing him from dining in hall. Alexander Martin served two years of his apprenticeship but "became afflicted with a most violent and obstinate rheumatic complaint in his joints and limbs which totally deprived him of the use thereof ... until lately" 1826. Charles Costley Sullivan distinguished himself by serving under five different masters during his apprenticeship 1835-1840. Apprentices had to have a knowledge of Latin. Matthew Barrington attended the school of Richard McElligott of Limerick "and hath learned the Latin language by being instructed in the following books, viz. Lilly's Grammar, Corderius, Ovid, Caesar, Virgil, Terence, Sallust, Cicero and the Odes and Satires of Horace"— all before his sixteenth birthday in 1804.

The editors express thanks to the Librarian and staff of King's Inns Library for the excellent facilities extended, and to J. F. Eustace for transcribing Mr. Sadleir's notes written on slips.
